DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's response filed June 20, 2008 has been received and considered along with the Information disclosure statements.

Drawings

2. The drawings remain objected to because applicant's have not submitted a complete set of formal drawings (which would make subsequent interpretation easier should the application mature into a patent). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 18-20,22,23,27-31,34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Japanese publication JP 8-144927 in view of the U.S. Publication to Walker '411

Regarding claims 18-20,22,23,27-31,34 JP '927 shows a motor and pump assembly comprising a rotating shaft 6, a plurality of radial (ball) pistons 9, a cam 10 with followers (part of the piston assembly) high and low pressure ports at 3A,3B. The rotatable valve plates are at 12 and 14.

Lacking is a showing that the device operates both as a motor and pump (although presumably this is the case) .

The U.S. Publication to Walker '411 is relied upon to show a similar pump assembly to that of the instant invention with which applicant's are well familiar. Note in col. 3 around line 13 Walker states "...the unit has the capability to operate both as a pump and as a motor...".

The title of the invention of JP '927 states it as a "Radial Piston Motor and Radial Piston Pump.

In lieu of this (and as broadly claimed by applicant's) the ordinary skilled worker in the art at the time of the invention would have found it obvious to have operated JP '927 as both "a pump" and "a motor" by regulating the direction of the fluid flow through the device via directional rotation of the plate members 12 and 14. Walker states that such a device may be operated in one of two modes.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 18-20,22-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by the U.S. Publication to Walker '411.

Regarding claims 18-20,22-37 Walker '411 shows a device with which applicant's are well familiar. Note the shaft 58 to which a rotor 56 having a plurality of slots 60 is connected. Note the shuttle valve assembly at 162. The high and low pressure ports are at 80 and 82 (or 138 and 144).
